QUIZ 200

2011 Programme

Adrian Robinson set his first quiz, an elimination round for BBC Essex's Half Crown Quiz to find the eight teams from the Lions Clubs based in Essex who would compete in the broadcast rounds to raise awareness of Children in Need back in 1993.

Between then and December 2011, Adrian will have written 200 quizzes raising over £75,000 at the time of writing for a long list of local and other charities.

His quiz sheets now regularly sell over 1,000 copies locally and across the world-wide web as they are now a regular feature with web sales increasing each year.

Some of the charities who have benefitted from the Quizzes over the years are:
