This Competition will benefit the EAST ANGLIAN CHILDREN'S HOSPICES which is a charity dear to the heart of the Lions Club of Clacton on Sea and especially President, Lion Terry Lilley and his wife, Theresa. They have been regular supporters of the Ipswich Unit of the East Anglian Children's Hospices for many years.

The three East Anglian Children's Hospices at Ipswich, Milton (Cambridge) and Quidenham (Norfolk) offer a range of services to support children and young people with life-threatening and life-limiting conditions and their families. Care and support is provided in the hospices, in the family home and in other settings.

A new purpose-built Hospice unit has been recently opened in Ipswich which will greatly improve the services that can be offered to this area.

A number of local children and families from the Tendring area benefit from these services as it is less distance to travel for the help.

The Hospices survive mainly from donations raised by the public so they need all the help and support we can give them.
